

Things to Do in North County San Diego March 24 – 30

Happy Easter to those who celebrate! The sun should be shining this weekend, perfect for enjoying special brunches, egg hunts, the KIA Classic LPGA golf tournament and more. Though after the sun goes down, consider joining the Electric Run in Del Mar on Saturday to mix a bit of nightlife and fitness under black lights.

KIA Classic (Carlsbad)

The Kia Classic will showcase 144 LPGA players competing for a prize of $1.7 million. The tournament will feature a qualifier, practice rounds on Monday and Tuesday, a Wednesday Pro-Am, and four competitive rounds of play from Thursday through Sunday on Aviara Golf Club's championship Arnold Palmer 18-hole and par-72 coastal layout course.

- Thursday, March 24 – Sunday, March 27
- Event times vary
- Aviara Golf Club
- $20 – $150

Spring Fest (Encinitas)

The Spring Fest Open House at Lux Art Institute celebrates the opening of a new exhibition featuring sculptures by Margaret Griffity. This free event will feature art projects and stations, outdoor activities, a raffle, food trucks and vendors, and unique items for sale.

- Saturday, March 26
- 11:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
- Lux Institute
- Free

Eggstravaganza Spring Festival (Carlsbad)

The Eggstravaganza is Carlsbad's largest egg hunt but will also feature face painting, crafts, soak the bunny, cookie decorating, fun zones, and more. It will also be the time to learn about Carlsbad Parks & Recreation summer camps on offer. Wristbands and activity cards for the event can be purchased onsite or in advance to avoid lines.

- Saturday, March 26
- 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
- Poinsettia Park
- $6 Activity Cards and $6 unlimited Fun Zone Wristbands

Electric Run (Del Mar)

The Electric Run combines nightlife and fitness during an extra sensory 5K run. Look forward to heart-pumping music along the entire course, electric lights and lasers, five new dance party zones, ELECTROBANDs—an illuminating LED bracelet that automatically syncs with the music—and more eclectic features.

- Saturday, March 26
- 7:30 p.m.
- Del Mar Fairgrounds
- $34.99

Easter Brunch Options

Of course, this is a particularly festive weekend to enjoy family brunch. Here are a few of the many options:
